

SCIENCE and Discovery
CLUB
AT FLEETWOOD MOUNT

On a park walk collect dead twigs from the ground

Take them home and display in a jar to say farewell to Winter and welcome Spring

Look out your window at gardens to watch the weather and paint the twigs bright colours of Spring every time you see:

Did you know the Mount was a weather Station for the Met Office since 1886? Use these fun crafts to watch the weather and record its seasonal changes.