Introduction

Wyre sits along the Lancashire coastline and is made up of a collection of vibrant communities, each with its own distinct character including Poulton-le-Fylde, Thornton, Cleveleys, Fleetwood, Garstang, Knott End-on-Sea as well as numerous villages and surrounding rural areas. Eastern parts of the borough lie within the Forest of Bowland, a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

The borough is named after the River Wyre, designated a County Biological Heritage Site. It runs from the Bowland Fells near the village of Abbeystead through the area and meets the Irish Sea at Fleetwood and is 28 miles long. There are no road or rail connections between Fleetwood and Knott End-on-Sea and surrounding villages either side of the Wyre Estuary, and it is necessary to take a 30 minute detour by car to cross the road bridge at Hambleton to travel between the two parts of Wyre, or cross the estuary by using the foot passenger Fleetwood to Knott End Ferry Service, which is an approximate 8 minute crossing. The ferry service is an historic service originally run by a local farming family having first taken passengers across the water in 1841.

Our neighbouring districts are Blackpool, Fylde, Preston, Ribble Valley and Lancaster. Wyre is part of the Lancashire Combined Authority and is part of the forthcoming local government reorganisation. We recognise the opportunities that this presents in terms of joint project development and funding opportunities, however are committed to maintaining the identity of our place as a key hub for heritage and culture. We will therefore ensure that future opportunities are explored and developed with our local communities.

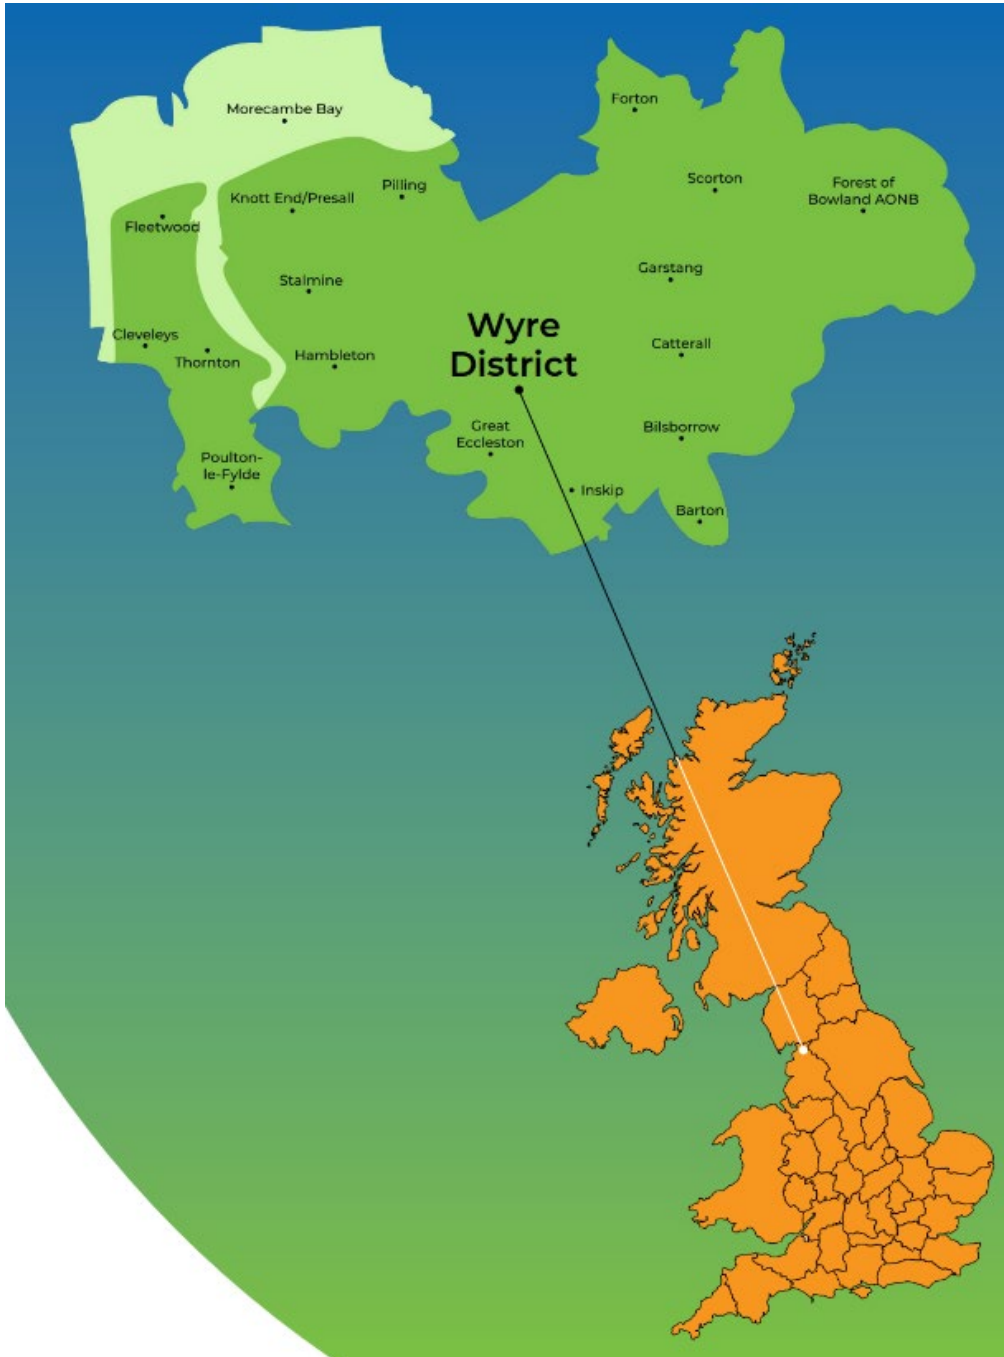

This strategy aims to strengthen, promote and grow our heritage and culture. It will help us sustain and develop our existing natural and built heritage and cultural and creative assets to take them with us into the future whilst proactively recognising new opportunities for growth.

There are nine priorities to the strategy.

- Natural Heritage - protecting and enhancing the environment.
- Built Heritage – protect, conserve and sustainably promote Wyre’s historic buildings, structures and heritage infrastructure.
- Culture and Creativity - strengthening and supporting community-led culture organisations to enhance the quality of life and wellbeing in our towns and villages.
- Creative Placeshaping – creating a place where people want to be.
- Connectivity – Support the sector to work collaboratively
- Creative Enterprise and Skills – create a diverse workforce and voluntary sector.
- Growing heritage and cultural alongside the Economic Development and Tourism Strategy, as well as supporting new places for heritage and culture to ensure Wyre’s residents can experience heritage and culture in their local areas.
- Heritage and Cultural Leadership – drive forward and advocate for the Heritage and Culture Strategy and sector

- Capturing Value – Monitor and evaluate the effect of heritage and culture in Wyre.

We hope that everyone in our town, villages and communities in the years to come will feel the impact of this Strategy as we realise our ambitions and take essential steps to sustain and where possible grow our heritage and cultural assets and better tell the story of Wyre for generations to come.

Connected Strategies

The newly refreshed Council Plan 2025-28 and associated Directorate Service Plans recognise the value of heritage and culture for the local community and its visitors, as evidenced by the commitment under ‘Growth and Prosperity – A thriving local economy and town centres’

The Economic Development and Visitor Economy Strategy states,

‘A rich cultural offer is needed to attract visitors, using events to pull in those visitors and by investing in the arts and museums infrastructure. A commitment exists within the new Economic Development and Visitor Economy Strategy to invest in and facilitate the commission of a Wyre Heritage and Culture Strategy to help secure future investment and development of Wyre as a destination’

To make clear our commitment to Heritage and Culture a statement of intent was produced as a first stage measure that precedes this more detailed, longer-term Strategy.

This Strategy will complement existing key local, regional and national policies and plans.

Why we need a Strategy?

Across towns and villages, along our stunning coastline and breathtaking countryside we have a significant heritage and a growing cultural scene, with many opportunities for local residents and visitors to experience both. This Heritage and Cultural Strategy aims to strengthen and promote our existing offer. It also recognises that our district has a marked demographic profile, with a notably high proportion of older residents. NHS England¹ has also identified that Fleetwood, our largest town, is a significantly deprived seaside community that has poor health outcomes and poor mental health compared to the national average. In younger age groups they have twice the Lancashire average unemployment rate. We therefore need to make heritage and culture as open as possible to all, and to offer a high quality and diverse range of creative opportunities, accessible to people of all ages, and in all communities. Some progress has already been made. We have a number of long established and respected events, galas, festivals and fairs. Spot On Lancashire managed by Culturepedia works with harder to reach communities to bring professional performing arts to village halls, libraries, pubs and open spaces across Wyre. There are a number of active and long established historical societies. There are also two networks for artists and creative practitioners called Fleetwood Arts Partnership and Wyre Creative Network that have recently been established. Their aim is to help local people stay in touch, access funding opportunities and connect with others across the district to identify shared opportunities and challenges. The groups recognise the need for a joined up approach in order to make creativity and culture an even greater part of Wyre. Wyre Council has also recently made a formal commitment to the process by producing a Heritage and Cultural Statement and forming a quarterly Heritage and Culture working group. So, in 2025, work began to develop this Strategy which will ultimately help us achieve our goals.

'People like the general environment of Wyre and often associate it with their happy childhood memories. Wyre is Lancashire 'all in one' the uplands, the lowlands, its waterways and its towns and villages all in one district' - Wyre Coast and Countryside Team.

As of 2022 Wyre's population is 114,809

In the over 90 age range, women outnumber men

While less than 13% of Wyre's population lives in the most deprived areas, there are small areas within the worst 10% in the country, mainly in Fleetwood (State of Wyre report)

As of 2022 Wyre's population is 114,809. In the over 90 age range, women outnumber men by 2.1 to 1. The age range is 50+ and the average life expectancy is 80 years. Ages 16 – 64 represent 56.4% of the population. 97% of the Wyre population is White British.

While less than 13% of Wyre's population lives in the most deprived areas, there are 6 small areas within the worst 10% in the country, mainly in Fleetwood (State of Wyre report)

What we mean by Heritage and Culture

Arts, culture and heritage can mean many different things to people. It should aim to engage as wide an audience as possible through a variety of historic and creative industries. It should be defined as the sum of habits, skills, traditions, customs, religion, and beliefs. Heritage itself can be touchable things, such as old buildings, monuments, sculptures and historic collections and also untouchable things such as social practices like gala days, sports events and agricultural fairs, or it can be knowledge about nature and traditional crafts or even oral traditions and expressions such as performing arts or talks about local heritage and folklore. All of these can often be part of our everyday life in some way and are subsequently passed to us by our immediate family or our ancestors and often have a historic, cultural or social significance be it locally, regionally or nationally.

How we developed the Strategy

To ensure our strategy is distinctive, ambitious, relevant and deliverable, a range of work was undertaken to provide the evidence base for the approach we are taking. We reviewed local, regional and national policies and plans that could influence our strategy and gathered information about recently completed capital projects, as well as those currently under development in Wyre. We consulted widely, through a number of 1-1 interviews, workshops and a public survey which had 222 responses. This all took place between April and December 2025.

Wyre's Heritage and Culture Most Recent Achievements

The UK Shared Prosperity Fund (UKSPF) was a Government Fund administered by the Lancashire County Combined Authority. The aim of the fund was to kickstart economic growth through communities and place, and support for local business and people and skills. UKSPF supported a number of heritage and culture projects across Wyre. Some of those achievements included:

- The production of 10 blue plaques situated on iconic heritage buildings in Fleetwood and an accompanying heritage trail.
- Flakefest - A live music event for local communities in Fleetwood.
- Cleveleys Multiple Arts Projects – Cleveleys Arts Festival, Winterval Festival and street theatre. Development of the Cleveleys history and Mystery Trail.
- Cleveleys Bus Station Mural and 'Andor' seafront marker
- Wanderland Family Festival in Poulton-le-Fylde.
- Spot On Festival at Poulton Community Hall. Theatre, music and dance
- Wyre Estuary Gateway – improved and accessible pathways from Skippool to Stanah.
- Community Infrastructure Grants - Claughton Memorial Village Hall and Hambleton Village Hall Projects to improve multifunctional space to include more creative and wellbeing activities.
- Garstang Town Centre Public Realm

Green Flag Award

Wyre has consistently achieved the Green Flag Award and officially been recognised as having some of the country's best parks. In 2025 Wyre Council received Green Flag Awards for Poulton's Vicarage Park and Hawthorne Park, Wyre Estuary Country Park in Thornton and Memorial Park and The Mount in Fleetwood. These sites are five of the 2,250 in the UK to achieve the award, which is the international mark for parks and green spaces. These parks and open spaces are vital for communities to enjoy nature, and during the ongoing cost of living crisis it is a free and safe space for families to socialise and gives important opportunities for people to benefit from physical and mental health benefits of green spaces.

The Strategy

Our Mission

Wyre is a place where heritage and culture are celebrated, enriching our growing tourism economy and strengthening local pride and ensuring our heritage and culture is cherished, shared, understood and enjoyed by all. We will inspire and encourage creativity and flair and enable cultural connections to flourish. We will be recognised for our glorious heritage and vibrant culture that appeals to, represents and engages with people who live, work, visit or study within the community.

Our Values

Our Values

Our values underpin this strategy. We will:

- Maximise opportunities to cherish, grow and promote our heritage to the local community and visitors.
- Recognise the importance of heritage, culture and creativity in:
 - Placeshaping² (creating a sense of place)
 - Economic growth and development
 - Physical and mental health and wellbeing
- Celebrate the creativity and diversity of Wyre's communities and organisations.
- Use heritage and culture to drive innovation, partnerships and joint projects.
- Promote, support and create cultural events, activities and experiences to foster community, enjoyment and shared experiences.

² Placeshaping is creating a place where people want to be, focussing on how space functions and improving the quality of life, fostering a sense of belonging and creating a vibrant and sustainable environment by engaging with the local community to shape its future.

What does success look like?

We will use a set of measures, measured using quantitative and qualitative data, which will track progress and help us understand what impact the strategy is having.

Our goal is that we will ensure:

- Our natural and built heritage is sensitively nurtured, well-promoted and can be viewed and enjoyed by all, either in digital or physical form.
- That our heritage and cultural offer is perceived by local communities as high quality, interesting, fun, relevant, accessible and well-promoted.
- That heritage and cultural businesses, organisations, artists, and creatives feel connected, resilient and ambitious in commercial, charitable and voluntary sectors.
- Residents who have taken part in heritage or cultural activity feel their health, happiness and wellbeing have improved as a result.
- That children and young people feel they have ample opportunities to take part in heritage or cultural activities
- More people work in the heritage and cultural industries, backed up by more training, skills and pathways to employment.
- That investment into heritage and culture through earned income, grants, sponsorship and philanthropy has increased.
- The number and diversity of visitors, audiences and participants in heritage, and culture activity has increased.

- That activities surrounding heritage and culture are helping to tackle issues surrounding climate change.

'I have made new friends and expanded my social circle, I have learnt so many new techniques which I've loved and would never have normally experienced and have kept a portfolio of the artwork I've created' – Wyre resident who has participated in a Creative Wellbeing Course.
